One small, weird idea. Your own.

CLASS SITE · WEEK 9

Wednesday 12:00–14:50 · E401 → PC Lab · Prof. DY Kwon · Use this for Week 9: talk to the AI assistant and submit one idea

This week is about one idea of your own — the MSCHF way. MSCHF (say "mischief") is an art collective in Brooklyn that makes small, strange things people actually do something with. It is your own idea, not a group's. You build it by talking to the AI assistant. It asks about real scenes, and you decide.

MSCHF in four boxes — three drops

| | 1 · Everyone knows | 2 · One weird twist | 3 · One small thing | 4 · People moved |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| Times Newer Roman 2018 | A paper must be 15 pages | A font that looks the same but is 5–10% wider | A font file | Students downloaded it — 13% fewer words, same pages |
| Key4All Sept 2022 | Renting a car: book, pay, get a key | 1,000 people hold the key to the same car | A sign-up page and a key | 1,000 keys sold |
| ATM Leaderboard 2022 | Your bank balance is private | Turn it into an arcade scoreboard | One ATM, one screen | People really used it — the gallery said the withdrawals were real |

Today, step by step

Scan the code open Week 9 sign in → Say hi the assistant starts with you → Pick a road twist · something new · in Korea → Say "summarize" when you want your one page → Say yes it is submitted = attendance

THE FOUR QUESTIONS YOUR IDEA ANSWERS

1. The rule. What rule or annoyance does everyone around you know?
2. The twist. What is your weird twist?
3. The small thing. What is the smallest thing you could make — one page, one form, one message?
4. The move. What would people actually do with it?

THREE WAYS TO START

A. Twist the business idea you already have. Make it fun, not boring.

B. Or something you really want to make.

C. Or: what if you did it in Korea?

Start with a real scene: when, where, who. "Everybody complains about the laundry room on Sunday night" is better than "people are busy".

Deadline: today, Wed Oct 28, 18:00. After 18:00 it is recorded as late. You can fix it and submit again in the same chat. Write in your own language if you want — the assistant keeps an English version for the professor. After you submit, press Download my idea (PDF): one page with your name and your character.
